

DERRICK BROOKS
C H A R I T I E S

Derrick Brooks

Introduction Verbiage

Derrick Brooks is President of the Tampa Bay Storm, Derrick Brooks Charities and Brooks DeBartolo Collegiate High School. He is a veteran of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he played for 14 years. Prior to playing for the Buccaneers, Derrick attended Florida State University where he excelled not only as an athlete but most importantly as a student. He earned his Bachelor's degree there and after being drafted by the Buccaneers, went back to FSU and earned his Master's Degree in Business Communications. Derrick's passion for education and inspiring young people, led him to begin his charitable work in the community. He is a devoted husband and father of 4 children.

